

I am very satisfied and pleased with NJ's "Do Not Call" list. It has cut down considerably on the number of unsolicited and unwanted phone calls from solicitors that I once received every day. They were a nuisance and disruption in my life. I make it a policy not to interact or deal with any business or charity who contacts me via the phone. Telemarketers are an infringement on my privacy.